FR. RICARDO RIVERA, SCH.P.

Fr. Ricardo D. Rivera-Ortiz is native to Puerto Rico. Inspired by the formation received from his parents and grandfather, he discerned a call to priesthood with the Piarist Fathers. He has earned a teacher certificate from the Pontifical Catholic University of Puerto Rico, a Bachelor of Philosophy from St. John Vianney College, and Bachelor's in Fine Arts from the University of Puerto Rico. In 2014, he did his Religious Profession of Simple Vows in Mexico City. Fr. Rivera has served communities in New York and Ft. Lauderdale. He currently serves as Rector/Superior in the Miami community at St. John the Apostle Parish in Hialeah and is a full-time teacher at Carrollton School of the Sacred Heart in Coconut Grove. As a Piarist, he enthusiastically continues the evangelizing mission through education, a legacy started by Saint Joseph of Calasanz more than 400 years ago, bringing the joy of the Gospel to the community he serves.
